Diploma Hour

The graduating class of 1937 numbers 68. There are thirty-nine boys and twenty-nine girls—the largest class graduated in the history of the high school. The class of 1936 numbered 63, which was the largest previous class.

May is the most popular month and December the least popular. Twelve of these graduates were born in May, nine in November, seven in February, and only three in December. The rest of the birthdays are well scattered among the other eight months. Two graduates in each instance celebrate April 11, May 8, May 12, May 30, August 16, and November 20. Those of May 8, May 12, May 30, August 16, and November 20 are of the same age. One celebrates Saint Valentine's Day, one April Fools' Day and one Armistice Day. Twenty-two were born in 1918, thirty-seven in 1919, and seven in 1920. These seven either started in the rural school or were born in January or February of 1920, which accounts for their early graduation. The "babies" of the class are Virginia Berger, Rosemary Stalnaker, and Norma Metzler. Virginia, the youngest, is 16 years, 5 months, 29 days today.

The average age of the boys is 18 years, 3 months, 8 days.

The average age of the girls is 18 years, 0 months, 14 days.

The average age for the girls is exactly the same as last year, but commencement comes seven days earlier this year.

Six of these graduates entered Nappanee High School in 1924, 64 enrolled in 1925, one graduate last year; 30 are on the platform tonight; 8 are still in high school, and we hope will graduate next year; 16 have moved away and 15 have dropped out, these graduates are classed as rural and forty-one live in Nappanee.

The attendance of this class has not been as good as that of some former classes. The total days missed up to April 2, by these 68, while enrolled in Nappanee High School is 1237½. This is an average of 4.55 days absence each year, or a percentage of attendance of 97.47. Those who have missed less than five days during the four years are as follows: Elizabeth Furney 0 days; Carlyle Snider ½ day; Priscilla Bock 1 1/3; Harold Strycker 2; Dorothy Strauss 2 1/6; Inez Stahly 2 1/3; Lester Widmoyer 3; Minerva Pletcher 3½; Merl Clouse 3½; June Dumph 4; Robert Sharp 4½; and James Weygand 4 2/3. George Cleveland, Dorothy McCuen, and Rosemary Stalnaker deserve honorable mention for attendance.

I, Morris Penrose, do bequeath my manners to "Nip" Hoffer.

I, Henry Pfeiffer, will my carefree attitude to Francis Herr.

I, Ernest Pletcher, will my senior dignity to Elmo Phend.

I, Minerva Pletcher, will my grades in citizenship to Blanche Martin.

I, Madlin Reed, will my boisterous manner to whoever wants to try to equal me in '38.

I, Ronald Ringenberg, will my "ability to help" Mr. Foulke to David Coppes.

I, Robert Sharp, will my photographic ability to the next snapshot editor.

I, Carl Sheets, will my beard to someone who wants to join the House of David.

I, Bob Shively, will my basketball ability to Jim Miller hoping it will give more power to N. H. S.

I, Carlyle Snider, will my musical ability to Carlyle Frederick.

I, Inez Stahly, will my boy friend in Kalamazoo to someone in high school who can handle him as well as I have.

I, Rosemary Stalnaker, will my position in debating to someone who is willing to work long and hard for it.

I, Earl Stouder, will my girl friend in Goshen to whoever can go to Goshen more often than I do.

I, Dorothy Strauss, will my long, curly tresses to Margaret Mountjoy.

I, Harold Strycker, will my ability to drink Pepsi-Cola to Wayne Best.

I, Donald Stump, will my bicycle to Lowell Hoffer to use if the V-8 fails.

I, Everett Stouder, will my girl friend in New Paris to someone who can handle her.

I, Eleanor Tobias, will my always perfect coiffure to Marjorie Corwin.

I, Welbourne Tooker, will all my country charms used in fascinating the girls to Wilfred Ulery.

I, Katharine Truex, will my sparkling, black eyes to Marilyn Slagle.

Class Will

I, Jay Van Sickle, will my art ability to someone who feels he can use it.

I, Francis Wagner, will my thick black hair to Bob Malcolm.

Juniors

We, the class of '38 are just preparing to dock our ship "Education" after our third trip on another strange course. Our colors, purple and gold, have flown over every member of our crew of fifty, each wearing a yellow rose. Our motto: "A winner never quits and a quitter never wins" has been lived up to by all.

Our ship has new officers aboard this year. Officers on past trips have been:

Freshmen		Sophomores
Donabelle Minard	Captain	Charles Holderman
Julian Walters	First Mate	Donald Cleveland
Donnabelle Farrington	Second Mate	Donnabelle Farrington
Eldon Pippen	Stewards and Stewardesses	Martha Chamberlain
Robert Lape		Isabelle Moore
		Elmo Phend

The boys have shown their ability to be valuable members of the basketball teams and every one is expecting more from them next year. The girls have had a noon-basketball team and have played some tough games with other classes.

Because of the many activities and the lack of funds, we have had no parties on deck, but we are looking forward to the occasion of the Junior-Senior Reception. Perhaps the Seniors are looking forward to this too.

After a brief vacation, we shall start our fourth and final trip on our ship as Seniors.

—Donnabelle Farrington.

Sophomores

A few days before school started in August a freshman called at the superintendent's office to enroll. Mr. Abell asked, "Ever had mathematics?" Replied the freshman, "Nope, just chicken pox and measles."

This is typical of the stories circulated each year in honor of the freshmen. Last year the class of '39 was the object of the remarks. As frsehmen we elected officers as follows:

President .....Carlyle Frederick
Vice-President .....Ruby Calbeck
Secretary-Treasurer .....Catherine Mullett
Student Council....Tilson King and Gwendolyn McCormick

This year we returned not as "Freshies," but as Sophomores. Instead of having others tell stories about us, we can now tell them too.

After we had become accustomed to our place as Sophomores, we decided it was about time for a class party. On the evening of February twenty-third we had a skating party. Every one had a good time.

During the last few games of the basketball season two Sophomores, Robert Rensberger and Tilson King have been playing on the first team. We are looking forward to seeing these boys play the entire season next year.

First row: Ethel Mast, Josephine Metzler, Maurine Wiseman, Wilferd Ulery, Glen Stillson, Paul Welty, Richard Mattern, Carylye Moore.

Second row: Dorothy Metzler, Gwendolyn McCormick, Dorothy Mishler, Dora Lynn, Marvin Miller, Paul Mellinger, Philip Miller, Blanche Martin, Miriam Stahly.

Third row: Mr. Foulke (advisor), Marilyn Miller, Marilyn Slagle, Evelyn Roose, Ivadelle Pletcher, Margaret Mountjoy, Virginia Snider, Catharine Mullett, Martha Wagner, Rosemary Roose, Jean Strauss.

Sophomores

First row: Mildred Krou, Margaret Krou, Junior Dumph, Gerald Bankhart, Donivan Hall, Philip Heckerman, Eleanor Hochstetler, Anna Culp, Elsie Hochstetler, Isabelle Doering, Helen Collins, Helen Furney.

Freshmen

The Freshmen class—technically speaking, "yearlings"—has sixty-three members enrolled this year that were in Nappanee High School last year. Eight have been lost since last year, but at the same time the ranks have been swelled by the enrollment of rural students and other newcomers to Nappanee.

The class has been showing rather unusual talent in athletics, music, and art. The Freshmen Boys' Quartette, and the Freshmen Brass Quartette is respected by all who have heard them. Jane Mast and Mary Etta Mast, two newcomers, have done well in representing Nappanee in the county Latin Contest.

During past years the class officers have been:

Willard Miller	President	Robert Mellinger
Betty Phend	Vice President	Devon Hall
Mary Nola Roose	Secretary-Treasurer	Mary Nola Roose
Dorothy Holderman	Student Council	Dorothy Holderman
Miss Heestand	Advisors	Miss Heestand

A picnic was on the social calendar as seventh graders; however, skating parties seem to be the favorite, with one in the eighth grade and one when freshmen.

Eighth Grade

We moved one rung higher toward our goal, Graduation, as we passed from the lowly seventh grade to the eighth grade.

Our seventh grade officers were:

President .....Robert Stump
Vice-President .....Jean Alice Mishler
Secretary-Treasurer .....Carolyn Gentzhorn
Student Council .....Phyllis Kurtz

In spite of sore ankles, we had a fine time at our class skating party on the evening of February second.

The Eighth Grade was well represented in sports, having five regulars on the Junior High Basketball Team.

We also have several members in the Band, and a large number of the girls belong to the Junior Girl Reserve.

We are eagerly waiting for next September when we shall be able to take our spite out on the underclass men as it was vented on us.

Seventh Grade

Any person who had the misfortune to have business on the lower floor of the high school building on the first day of school in August, 1936, was probably dumbfounded by the sight that met his eyes. For no apparent reason a panic was raging! For the benefit of any of our readers who may have witnessed this phenomenon, let us explain the cause of it. Fifty-eight seventh graders were merely trying to keep out of the wrong rooms—and there were plenty of 'em that day. As the year is ending, they seem to be doing much better, although occasionally a seventh grader may wander into a senior English class or a junior history class. They're a bunch of "swell fellows" anyway.

When November rolled around, both sections united to hold a skating party, and from the radiant good cheer on the faces of all the seventh graders the next morning we rather imagine it was quite a success.

Two bad things about being a seventh grader are the rough initiation that is held annually in their honor, and the thought that they will be subject to the same treatment when they are Freshmen. This is off-set somewhat by the fact that they have the privilege to do a little "initiating" themselves when they are eighth graders.

One year has been passed successfully, and only four more years remain before the class of '40 will be on the last lap as seniors. The best of luck to them.

Napanet Staff

An old proverb reads—"A fool is born every minute." May we add "and every year one runs for the editor of the Napanet"? (Maybe we have been mistaken—there may not have been such a proverb. That being the case, we'll take the credit for making up one).

Seriously however, we have enjoyed preparing this 1937 Napanet for you. After seven months of skipping classes, missing lunch, and running afoul of the faculty, we have finally completed our brain-child. We hope you enjoy it.

Secretary - - - - - -	JAMES WEYGAND

The purpose of the Student Council is to give the students a part in the governing of the school and to develop the power of self government in the students. Meetings were held every two weeks.

This year two new departments or projects were started: The Lost and Found Department, consisting of Harvey Miller, Norma Metzler, and June Dumph; the purpose of this department was to aid in the finding and returning of lost articles. Also a project was started to do away with loitering and loafing in the corridors. The monitors were Carol Clouse, June Dumph, Robert Mitchell and Julian Walters.

The Girls' Athletic Committee had Martha Chamberlin as their chairman, and Mary Osborn was chairman of the program committee.

The Student Council wish to thank all teachers and students who have helped to make this organization a success.

The Library

This year our library work is under the capable direction of Miss Blank, with the assistance of nine student librarians. The duties of these librarians are to catalog books, check in new magazines, keep a record of all books loaned to students, help others who are not well acquainted with the library, and to collect fines on books which are overdue.

The school subscribes to twenty-one weekly and monthly magazines, covering many different interests. The favorites of most of the students are The Reader's Digest, and Time. College papers are received in our library from Ball State Teachers College, Indiana University, and Manchester College.

At present, we have approximately four thousand volumes in the library. This year the Encyclopedia Britannica of twenty-four volumes, and seventy-seven other books of varied interests have been added. These books cover such subjects as home economics, industrial arts, agriculture, speech and debates, short stories, literature, vocations, and economics.

The Girl Reserve Club was organized in Nappanee in 1925 as a branch of the Elkhart Y. W. C. A. Miss Hazel Dickey was the organizer and first sponsor. The present sponsors are Miss Lantz and Miss Kivett.

The club consists of sophomore, junior, and senior girls and meetings are held every two weeks on Tuesday. The "rough" initiation was held in the early fall at which time many new members joined the organization.

The Girl Reserve has a social gathering once a month. The club participates in charity and social work. Twelve members and Miss Kivett attended the South Bend-Elkhart Girl Reserve Conference on February six, at the South Bend Y.W.C.A.

The co-operation of the club members, officers, and advisors have made the club a great success.

The Junior Girl Reserve was organized in 1925 by Mrs. Georgia Miller Replogle as a branch of the Senior Girl Reserve, and as a branch of the Y. W. C. A. The organization has grown from less than twenty members in 1925 to forty-two active members in 1937. The club is made up of seventh-grade, eighth-grade, and freshmen girls. Miss Shively is the adviser.

In November the members held a party at which twenty-one members received their "rough" initiation. This party was fun even for the girls being initiated.

At Christmas time, the Junior Girl Reserve, together with the Senior Girl Reserve, purchased and distributed baskets of food to less fortunate persons. Younger boys and girls were guests at a party in their honor.

The interesting and instructive programs of the bi-monthly meetings are given by the girls of the club, or by an outside speaker. We are sure the Junior G. R. has lived up to its purpose.

"Clean speech, clean living, clean scholarship, clean athletics, and to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character," have been the aims of the Hi-Y club since it was started on December 31, 1924 under the supervision of Mr. Abell. Mr. Abell remained adviser of the club until 1927 when Robert Quinn assumed this duty. Mr. White, our present adviser, started his leadership of the club in 1929 and has done excellent work since that time.

At the start of the school term the club had but twenty-two members, but on October 13, eight new members received their rough initiation. The serious initiation was held two days later at the Methodist Church.

This year the Hi-Y has made several trips to Elkhart. Also the G. R.-Hi-Y party this spring was thoroughly enjoyed. Perhaps the major project of the Hi-Y is the Father-and-Son Banquet held annually by the club. The Father-and-Son Banquet this year was held on November twenty-four at the United Brethren Church.

Adviser - - - - - - - -	HOMER FOULKE

The Fi-Kem Science Club was organized to enable its members to gain a better understanding and a greater appreciation of the importance of science in modern life.

The Fi-Kem Science Club was organized in October, 1936 for the benefit of science students who were interested in science, and who desired more knowledge of the subject than is afforded in the regular class-room. The membership of the club is limited and qualifications are very high. Members must be, or have been enrolled in either physics or chemistry at sometime in high school. Science grades and citizenship grades must be B, or above. Each member is pledged to strive for honesty in all things, a pleasing personality, and good habits.

Meetings are held bi-weekly and the programs are built around scientific subjects. Several interesting trips have been made to manufacturing companies. Bendix, and Studebaker plants have been visited.

The club has been successful in its first year, and there is every indication that, as the years go by, the organization will exert more and more influence on science in Nappanee High School.

Glee Club

If the name of an organization were the sole factor in inducing persons to join that organization, there can be little doubt that it would soon become necessary to find new quarters for the Glee Club.

To become one of the select thirty-five which comprise the Glee Club, each prospective person must pass the so-called "voice-test" conducted by Miss Lantz. Any girl who has had her full quota of over-the-fence gossip, but who lacks the requirements of the test is of course eliminated; this applies to boys also.

The first half of the year is usually more work than "glee"; the "glee" starts in March, when the silver-tongued tenors (or golden-voiced sopranos as the case may be) go on tour. The tour is not very long, however; only to Elkhart. The occasion is the Elkhart County High School Choral Festival. Miss Lantz accompanies the expedition not only to direct proceedings, but also to see that none of her "youngsters" get into trouble.

The Glee Club has appeared in quite a number of programs this year; the High School Band spring concert, the Baccalaureate program, the commencement program, and various other church and school programs.

Band

President - - - - - -	JAMES WEYGAND
Vice-President - - - - -	CARLYLE SNIDER
Secretary-Treasurer - - -	RONALD RINGENBERG
Drum Major - - - -	FREDERICK PLETCHER

A person "peeking in" on the first rehearsal of the band in September remarked, "It doesn't sound much like a band to me; sounds more like a hog eatin' corn." Strictly speaking, not very complimentary, but perhaps true; however, after hearing a finished symphonic performance in early spring the remark must have been reversed somewhat, for it had become a band.

The breach between the first strident blast of the brass or the "whoom-pahs" of the basses and a later performance was filled only by hard work on the part of each of the band's forty-five members. The band deserves especial commendation for their work.

The purpose of the band is not only to teach the performer the correct technique of his instrument, but also to offer him an opportunity to show that he has a will of his own. Through the study and performance of the finest works in musical literature each member expresses his own individuality. Surely this is a worthy goal for any organization.

Debate Club

"Resolved: That all electric utilities should be governmentally owned and operated," was the question studied throughout the season.

Different members of the club attended debate conferences and tournaments at Purdue, Elkhart and Fort Wayne. During the debate season practice debates were held with various schools, among them were Riley and Central of South Bend, Columbia City, Knox, Crown Point, Wiley of Terre Haute, Mishawaka, Goshen, La Porte, and Fort Wayne.

On February six, and twenty the district tournaments were held at New Paris and Nappanee respectively. Elkhart won first, Nappanee and Wakarusa tied for second, and Goshen and Concord tied for third. Others in the tournament were New Paris and Jefferson Twp.

Members of the affirmative team were Hobert Blosser (captain), Eleanor Barrett, and Verda Hershberger, alternate. Members of the negative team were June Dumph (captain), Kathryn Truex and Rosemary Stalnaker, alternate.

Meetings were held every Monday and Wednesday evenings after school with Mr. Mitchell, the debate coach. Twelve students were active in the club.

The debate season was enjoyed immensely by each member of the debate teams.

N. H. S. Craftsmen Club

President	ELDON PIPPEN
Vice-President	GEORGE PRICE
Secretary	RONALD RINGENBERG
Treasurer	ROSS GWIN
Adviser	MR. DICKEY

N. H. S. Craftsmen Club was organized in the latter part of this year. The purposes of the club are to promote and stimulate interest in crafts and various arts: to exchange ideas; to increase the knowledge of its members by demonstration; and to encourage hobbies of all kinds.

Although the club was started late in the season, considerable activity was carried on by its members.

In years to come, this club should prove of considerable interest to all high school boys interested in home-crafts. The constitution states that any boy maintaining a home work-shop may be a member.

National Honor Society of Secondary Schools

President - - - - - -	CARLYLE SNIDER
Vice-President - - - - -	HOBERT BLOSSER
Secretary - - - - - -	ALICE MALCOLM

This is the second year for the National Honor Society of Secondary Schools in Nappanee High School. The charter was granted to the Nappanee chapter on March twenty-five, 1936. Membership in this organization is based on four virtues; namely, character, scholarship, leadership, and service. The members of the organization are chosen by the entire faculty. Membership of the organization is limited; only fifteen per cent of the senior class, and five per cent of the junior class may be selected.

Last year, the faculty selcted as members the following students: Robert Callander, Evelyn Christner, Leonard Clark, Robert Coppes. Elta Holaway, Elta North, LaMar Stahly and Lara Mae Strauss. The above-named were all lost to the chapter by graduation. The faculty also elected at the same time, Alice Malcolm, Carlyle Snider, and Hobert Blosser from the class of 1937. Last fall, the following members were added: June Dumph, Harvey Miller, and Carol Clouse. The membership was again increased at the beginning of the second semester. Those elected from the senior class were: Geraldine Davidhizar, Wade Geyer, Dorothy Strauss and Welbourne Tooker. Those from the junior class were Mary Osborne and Eldon Pippen.

Although the organization has not taken a very active part in school affairs yet, it is destined to become more active in future years, because of the worthwhileness of its motives.

Colors: Black and White

Motto: "If the Home fails, everything fails"

Flower: White Carnation

The Future Home Makers club was organized in 1933. The club is made up of girls who are taking, or have taken, advanced home economics. Miss Heestand was the first sponsor and Miss Blank is the present sponsor.

The meetings are held during activity period every second week, on Monday. At one meeting, letters from Hawaii were read. February first, Mrs. Stuckman gave an interesting talk on spring fashions. At another meeting we had a debate, "Resolved that the country women are more happy and contented than the city women." Two special meetings were held at which slides were shown: the first on "Costumes of Many Lands," and the second on "Fashions from 1810 to 1936."

We have had several social meetings at night. The first was a pot-luck supper followed by the "rough" initiation of eighteen new members. Another pot-luck supper was held January fourteen at the school. On February eleven, we had a valentine party at the home of Ruth Gwin; valentines were exchanged and games played. On Thursday, March 18, we had another party at Kathryn Stahly's home. Everyone took part in the progam. The Future Home Makers have had many enjoyable meetings this year.

The members enjoyed a camping trip at Syracuse Lake preceding the opening of the school year.

At the beginning of the school year, seven more boys were found worthy and acceptable for membership and were promptly taken into the club, with the "veterans" of former years watching over them. After the initiation of these new members, the organization settled down to handle the business of the year.

Aside from the routine work of running an organization of this kind, there has also been plenty of fun. A play, "The Grass Is Always Greener." was presented at the Farmers' Institute. The annual Father and Son Banquet was held February 23.

Earl Stouder and Earl Micheal were selected by the chapter to represent Nappanee in the State F. F. A. Conference at Purdue University in January.

High School Boys' Quartette

The High School Boys' Quartette is more than an organization—it is the immortal part of man making itself evident through an organization.

Under the strain of continuous query, almost any member of the group—and they're a blood-thirsty looking crew—(that's why we didn't print their picture)—would finally break down and reluctantly admit that he belonged to the finest organization in Nappanee High School.

At the Elkhart County Choral Festival, held in Elkhart this organization, as well as the glee club, was exalted when one of the members, was selected by the director, LeRoy Wetzel, of Chicago, to sing the solo in "Home on the Range" in the evening session, when all the choruses and glee clubs sang together.

The first quartette to become a part of the extra-curricular system was organized by Miss Vivian Loomis in 1930, during the time that she was music instructor in Nappanee.

The members are Carlyle Snider, Carlyle Frederick, Hobert Blosser, and Lorrel Mullett.

Patrol

The patrol was organized in Nappanee High School a number of years ago for the purpose of safe-guarding the lives of younger children while coming and going to school.

The patrol, chosen from the seventh and eighth grade boys, are on duty at their respective corners each school morning, noon, and evening. Robert Geyer is the captain.

This note-worthy organization, doing much fine work, deserves more recognition then it has received in the past. It should be the personal desire of everyone to see this organization not only continue the fine work they are already doing, but to also expand the scope of its work.

LITERATURE

Class Prophecy of '37

It was springtime, and the fever
That is prone to take control
Hovered o'er me and possessed me,
Both in body and in soul.
'Twas that feeling 'ner forgotten,
That one never can disperse,
And the last thing I remembered,
Was the chanting of a verse.
I sank deeper into realms of nothing,
As I sank the chanting grew,
And the voices seemed familiar,
Like the strains of old curfew.
'Twas the hand of fate directing
In that opinness of time
A vast choir, and the voices
Blended joyously sublime!
Then I ventured forth a question,
"Please, Sir Master Fate, please tell,
From whence cometh all the music,
Voices that I know so well?"
Listening I think of angels,
For the music sounds like heaven,
Knowest thou not this wondrous choir?
Why it's the class of thirty-seven.
Then I realized the meaning,
Of this vision, so to speak,
Future lives of all my classmates
Could be seen, if I would seek.
"What a picture!." spoke up ROBERT
Then he set his camera square and "SHARP",
I would hate to have missed this one,
It's CARLYLE SNIDER with his harp.
He used to play a trombone,
But little did I think,
He'd be playing all his music,
In BOB MILLER'S skating rink.
Fates decreed us several farmers
And right here we have the list,
There's BERGER, MOORE, and WAGNER,
And who's the one I've missed?
Yes, another, 'tis EARL STOUDER,
And in his business life he meets,
A person selling implements,
His name is CARL SHEETS.
PAUL HECKAMAN turned out to be,
A man who builds the roads,
GEORGE CLEVELAND is our only boy
Who sends Western Union Codes.
WELBOURNE TOOKER is a doctor,
We thought that's what he'd be,
MORRIS PENROSE is a doctor too,

Prophecy

But his patient is a tree.
There are two girls within our class
Who have positions as secretaries,
Their employer is trustee PLETCHER,
The man who never marries.
The girl's names are STAHLY and TRUEX,
In their extra time they go to see,
A newly heard of tap dancer,
PHYLLIS HARE from Nappanee.
LORREL MULLETT is an architect,
And there's a man who works with him,
Although he takes the orders
You never hear a whim,
His name is RONALD RINGENBERG,
He's always full of fun,
His biggest friend is HENRY PFIEFFER,
Who is a manufacturer of gum.
GLEN NETTROUR drives a truck,
Which carries either coal or hay,
MAYNARD JOHNSTON rides along,
When'ere GLEN says he may.
MAYNARD is a boxer,
And has to keep in trim,
So GLEN has MAYNARD lift the hay,
And do all his work for him.
RONALD HOOVER as a baker,
Gives him all the cake they make,
Before long, on MAYNARD'S door,
Will hang a long, black crepe.
It was hung there by an attendant
Of the SHIVELY Funeral House,
The attendant was a boy we know,
By the name of MERL CLOUSE.
BURNETT MARTIN was the preacher
Of the funeral, so they say,
But we could all have guessed,
That he'd turn out that way.
We have an aviator in our class,
Whose name is GLENORA HALL,
Of all the flyers of today,
He's the greatest of them all.
PAUL BERKEYPILE is the mechanic,
Who grinds the bearings down,
On all the cars in HOCKERT'S garage;
The best garage in town.
Who is this other honored chap,
Who so much fame has won?
'Tis no one but JAMES WEYGAND,
Editor of The New York Sun.
As partner in his business,
They sing a lady's fame,
A journalist most worthy,

Prophecy

ROSEMARY is her name.
Then glancing through the pages
On the front page, plain in sight,
In bold Head-lined letters,
GERALD MULLETT'S name in light.
Another Clarence Darrow!
He's sure to win, I think,
A case for ELEANOR FLORA,
And also EDNA FINK.
Too bad for Gracie Allen,
For here in the movie page,
Is PRISCILLA taking leading parts,
That Gracie might play on the stage.
And HOBART' BLOSSER, country man,
Comes out to the front,
With ALICE MALCOM'S 4-H club,
In a demonstration stunt.
A dress designer in New York,
That's listed here, I see,
Must keep a swanky studio,
CAROL CLOUSE, it used to be.
In writing ads of lost and found,
Experienced to perfection,
Is HARVEY MILLER and he may too,
Run in the next election.
In a beauty parlor in La Paz,
Is MAXINE METZLER waving hair,
'Tis LOUISE the manicurist
Who is working with her there.
Way back in thirty-six
'Twas decided by debate,
That all medical attention,
Must be given by the state.
As a pioneer in this endeavor,
HAROLD STRYCKER shines,
When he might have made a fortune,
By selling window blinds.
His office girl is GERALDINE,
His head nurse is JUNE DUMPH,
MINERVA keeps the whole affair
From getting in a slump.
Across the street in red and white,
Is DUNNUCK'S grocery store,
The clerks are RUTH and HILDA,
I'm sure he needs no more.
For engineering through the land,
The best that one could hire,
Would be no other gentleman,
A trusted one, WADE GEYER.
The army is always in need of brave men,
So there ROBERT WISE will be found,
When JUNE BEST drops in to see him,

Prophecy

I'm sure he will show her around.
Athletics, they say, has taken a turn,
The ladies exceed in them all,
With CLARICE and MADLIN coaching the squad,
They'll win the big games and the small.
To colleges our talent has spread,
BETTY BERGER ahead of them all,
As matron she disciplines all the girls,
And keeps them away from the "HALL."
In the heart of the garden spot of the earth,
A real estate company is found,
JUNIOR ARNOTT' the manager sure knows his stuff.
And the business he does is profound.
His partners, the GEORGE girls are right on the job,
In vegetables they're specializing,
While JAY VAN SICKLE their products cartoon,
A clever way of advertizing.
ELEANOR TOBIAS owns a shop,
That makes money in the lump,
Her business manager is the man,
Whom we called DONALD STUMP.
In a college across the street,
The teacher is a new one,
The teacher there fills quite a place,
And her name is McCUEN.
In pioneer work we shouldn't omit,
The new nursery schools of the state,
ELIZABETH FURNEY has charge of the infant group,
ELEANOR BARRETT' all those five to eight.
Doctor EVERETT' standing o'er me,
As my consciousness returned,
Spoke in tones both soft and kindly,
He'd been watching, then I learned.
"She'll be alright very shortly,
I would bet you to a draw,
That this is just spring fever,
But the worst I ever saw!"

—Norma Metzler.

HI-Y FATHER-AND-SON BANQUET

The seventh annual Hi-Y Father-and-Son Banquet was held at the United Brethren Church, Tuesday, November 24, 1936. Mr. Busche led the assembly in singing while the Freshmen boys served the dinner.

Following the dinner, Gerald Mullett, acting as toastmaster, introduced Lorrel Mullett, who made the welcome address. The program continued with selections by a quartet composed of Carlyle Snider, Hobert Blosser, Carlyle Frederick, and Lorrel Mullett. Ralph Jerles entertained the group with piano selections. The Rev. H. A. Mellville gave the main address of the evening.

FRESHMAN CLASS PARTY

On a lovely evening about the third week in November the Freshman Class held a skating party in Stuckman's Hall.

Miss Shively, Mr. Dickey, and Mr. Busche went with them to take care of them. Aside from a few falls and some bad bruises, everyone thoroughly enjoyed himself. The evening's fun was ended by everyone wishing for another big event.

FUTURE FARMER INITIATION

A joint initiation of the Nappanee and New Paris chapters of Future Farmers was held in the high school gym on Monday night, October 10, 1936. Thirteen vocational agriculture students from New Paris and seven from Nappanee were received by the respective chapters.

After the initiation ceremony, pictures were shown and games were played. The evening was ended by refreshments, served by the Nappanee Chapter.

FUTURE FARMER FATHER-AND-SON BANQUET

The annual Father-and-Son Banquet of the Future Farmers of America was held at the high school building on Tuesday evening, February 23, 1937. Nearly one hundred persons were present including the boys, their fathers, and a few invited guests. The entertainment of the evening was the awarding of prizes to the members of the winning Future Farmers in the pest-killing contest. Moving pictures were shown following the awarding of prizes.

Society Notes

SOPHOMORE CLASS PARTY

Nearly thirty members of the sophomore class, with their sponsors, Miss Hoover and Mr. Foulke, enjoyed a skating party at Stuckman's Skating Rink on Tuesday, February 23, 1937. The sponsors and the students enjoyed themselves very much during the evening.

GIRL RESERVE AND HI-Y PARTY

Spurred on by good-heartedness, the Girl Reserve entertained the Hi-Y boys, Tuesday evening, March 23, at a skating party in Stuckman's Hall. Four teachers chaperoned the group: Mr. Busche, who proved he couldn't stand up very well on skates, Mr. White, who preferred not to put his faith on them, and Mr. Dickey and Miss Kivett.

Apples and ice cream bars were served, and all went home to suffer from stiff limbs.

Senior Class History

When the Wright brothers introduced the air-plane, they probably had little idea just what they were starting. Each year since their achievements in the air, adventurous youths have yearned for more knowledge in this great art and have sought schools of learning to receive it.

In 1932, some ninety Freshmen students enrolled in Nappanee High School to learn the art of flying. We were somewhat awed by the dignity of the superior senior class, who had already donned their parachutes for the final "take-off." We did gain courage, however, to give a Hallowe'en party. Norma Metzler was appointed First Pilot, with Harold Strycker as assistant and with Welbourne Tooker—"the watchdog of the treasury"—holding up the financial end of the situation.

When we returned the following year for further instructions, we felt more confident of our ability. This time we trusted our leadership to Robert Wise, with Carol Clouse as assistant and with Hobert Blosser as financial advisor. We celebrated our success with a skating party for we felt that, for the present, the ground was safer than the air.

When we returned for the third year of schooling, we found that the importance of our standing was greatly increased, and we were confronted with the task of planning the Junior-Senior Reception. Realizing that this would require intelligent leadership, we appointed Robert Shively, First Pilot, Carol Clouse, Assistant Pilot; and Hobert Blosser, financier, was retained because of his previous capable services. Under this leadership with the co-operation of every class member, the reception was successful.

We returned for our fourth year of coaching and suddenly realized that this was the final division of learning in the art of flying. Taking into consideration the responsibility and the gravity of the situation we elected as First Pilot, Gerald Mullett; Assistant Pilot Carlyle Snider; and retained Hobert Blosser as financier. Early in the year we decided to contribute the Napanet as a part of our service.

With the vigor previously exhibited by the members of our class of '37, we attacked this problem. The result is the twelfth edition of the Napanet which we consider one of the greatest achievements that our class or any other class has ever accomplished.

The Junior-Senior Reception with which we were honored, was one of the most successful entertainments which has ever been presented by a Junior Class. At Bacculaureate and Commencement Services we were given instruction on "First Flights" by experts in the field of aviation.

Realizing that "book learning" in this great art will be important if we profit by it, we shall not overlook the fact that much more knowledge may be gained by actual experience.

Perhaps we shall have our wings clipped or broken, but we shall remember that "it is better to have tried and failed than never to have tried."

—Eleanor Barett.

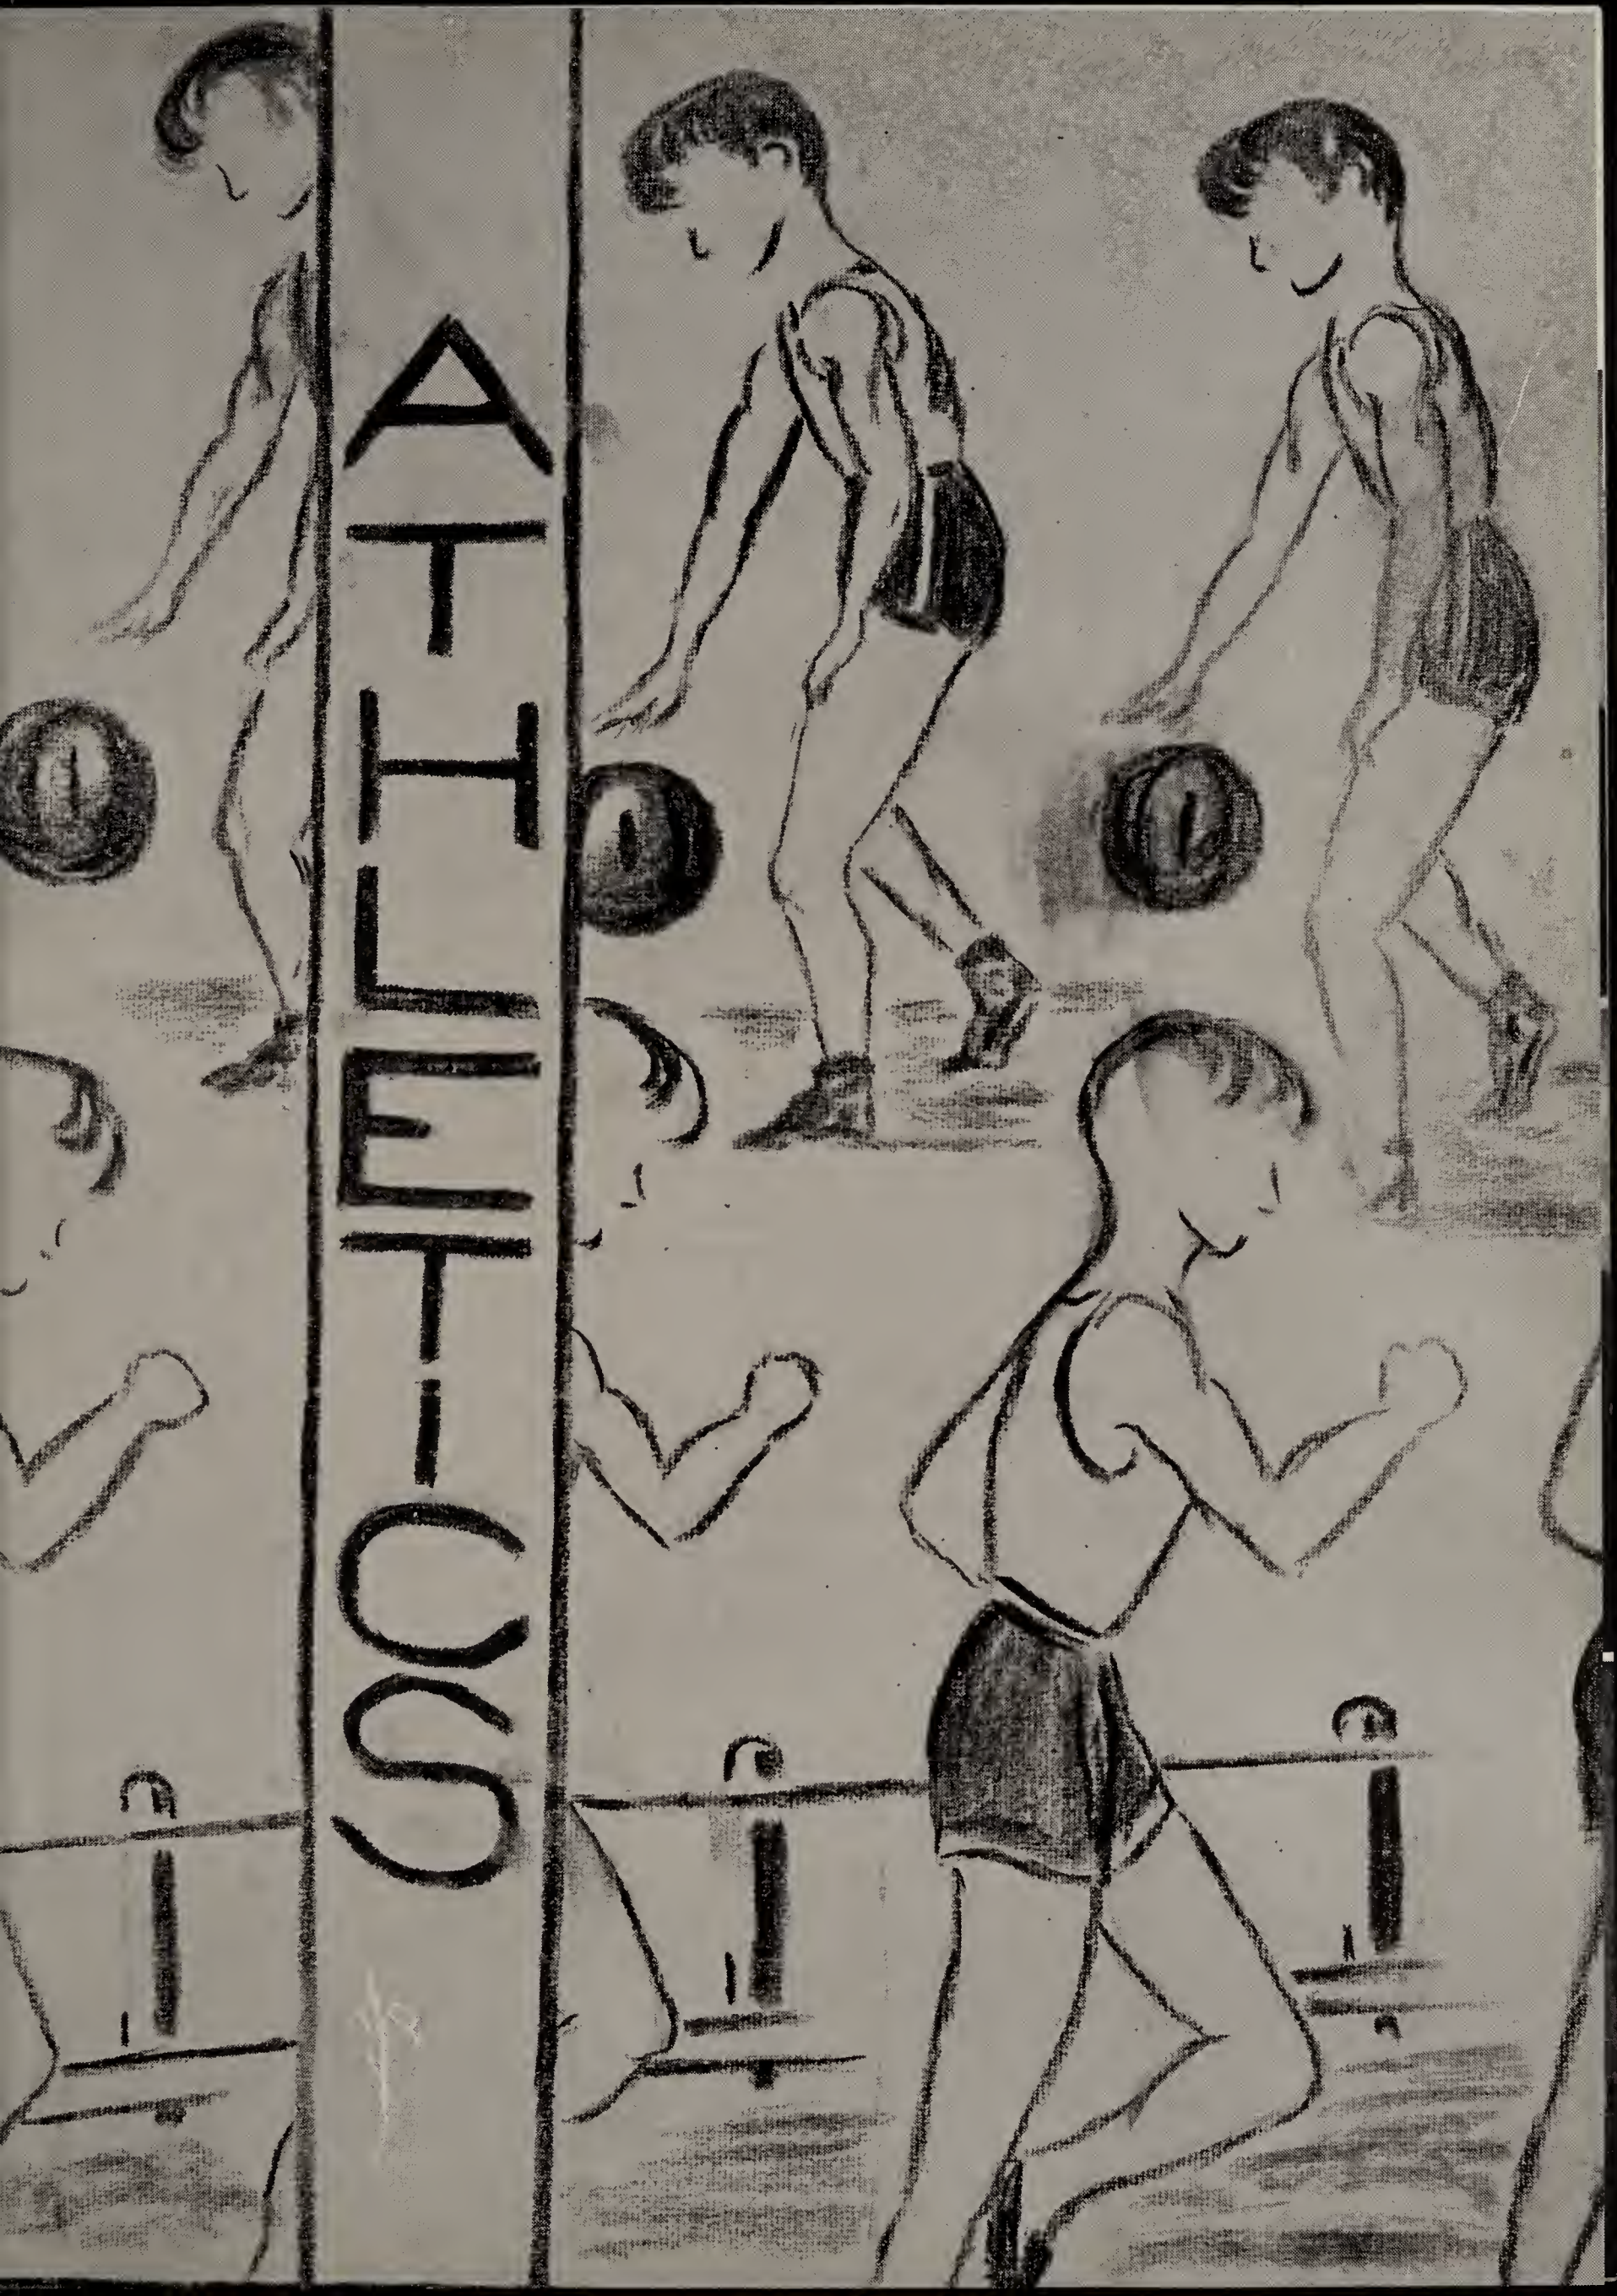
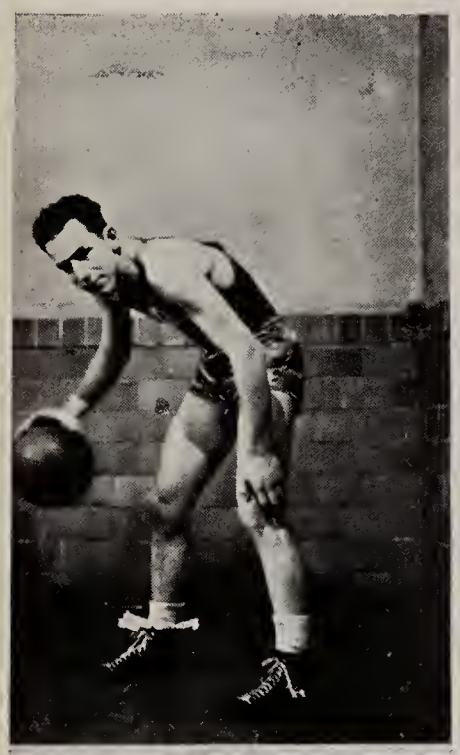
ATHLETICOS



VARSITY BASKETBALL



ROBERT SHIVELY

Bob's ability to get the rebound, won many games for Nappanee.

GERALD MULLETT

Bud's eye for the basket proved to be an asset to the Bulldogs.

WAYNE MILLER

Soit's defense at critical moments was an important asset to the team.

ELDON PIPPEN

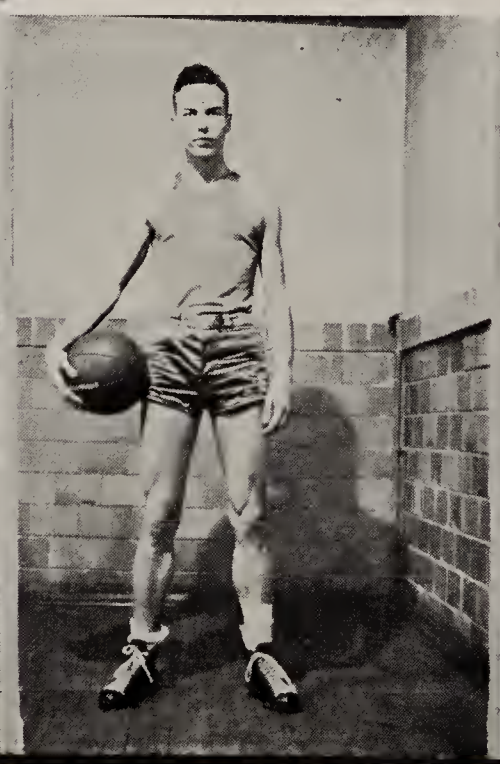
Bud's fight inspired the team to greater efforts.

ROY BEAN

Jack's speed was of great value to the Bulldogs.

JAMES MILLER

Jim's clever dribbling proved to be the thorn in the way of several opponents.



VARSITY BASKETBALL

WADE GEYER

Wade's clever footwork was a valuable factor in the team's success.

EVERETT STOUDER

Stouder's asset to the team was his clever handling of the ball.

ROBERT RENSBERGER

Rensberger's basketball intelligence proved to be of great value to the team.

TILSON KING

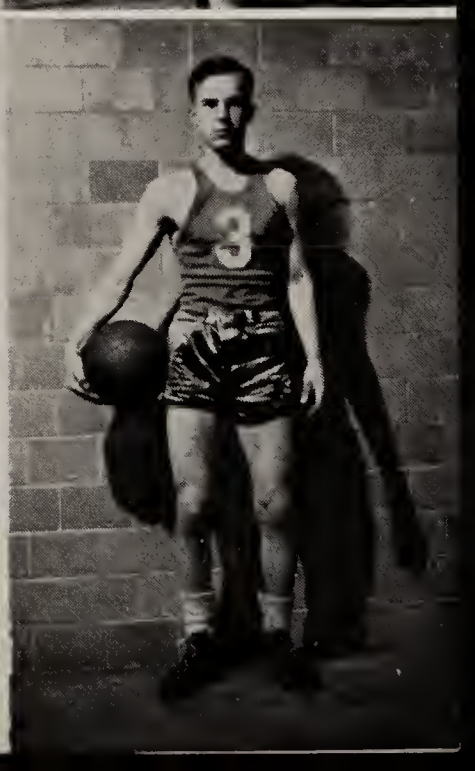
Tilson's value to the team was his ability to be changed from one position to another.

ELMO PHEND

Elmo's team spirit proved to be of great value to the Bulldogs.

ROBERT LAPE

Mose proved to be a valuable asset to the team with his clever dribbling.



Varsity Basketball

As we glance over the records of the past years, we can without hesitation say that basketball at Nappanee is an ever progressing sport. Nappanee always has a fine record and always considered as a hard team to beat by their opponents.

No individual star can be picked, for they all worked for the good of the team, each taking his share of the work. Shively and Mullett were the most experienced and therefore, much depended upon them. Wade Geyer, Bud Pippen and Jim Miller took their share of the burden and played like veterans.

Of course, all teams have their slumps and ours is no exception, although when the team was playing at its best it was hard for any team to defeat them.

Taking all into consideration, the team played hard, clean, basketball and for that they deserve much credit.

Front row: Dean Geyer, Robert Mitchell, Glen Stillson, John Lynch, Gerald Banghart.

Second row: George Price, Robert Rensberger, Tilson King, Ralph Greene, Raymond Wise, James Green.

Baseball

The Baseball team enjoyed a successful season during the fall schedule, having eight victories and one defeat. The spring schedule will be somewhat tougher, but the team should make a strong bid for conference honors. Stouder and Wagner did the hurling while Michael did the catching. This combination turned in some fine performances. Lape was the leading hitter; James Miller took fielding honors. The fine spirit that prevailed through the season was greatly appreciated by Coach Schuler.

Stouder and Wagner are the only members of the team that will be lost by graduation.

Second row: Everett Stouder, Earl Michael, James Miller, Robert Lape.

Standing: Coach Schuler, Lowell Hoffer, Tilson King, LaMar Stouder, Francis Wagner, Julian Walters, (trainer)

Track

Track is one of the most neglected sports in Nappanee. More benefit is derived from track than any other sport, but since it is too individual, many boys do not have the ambition to take up track.

During the last several years track has been on the upgrade at Nappanee, but it has not yet reached its peak.

There are many boys out for track this year. With Mr. Best to coach these boys, Nappanee should make an improvement over last year's team.

SCHEDULE

Second row: Richard Hockert, Kenneth Copsey, Ernest Pletcher, Frederick Pletcher, Arthur Sharp, Wade Richmond, David Stalnaker.

Third row: Robert Sharp, Wayne Miller, James Green, Elmo Phend, Lorrel Mullett, Robert Clark, Quentin Slabaugh.

Tennis

The tennis team had one of the most successful seasons ever known in the history of the school. The team won four out of six matches and finished third in the Conference.

Robert Mitchell won four out of six matches, which entitled him to a major letter, and an honor sweater when he is graduated. Pippen and Rensberger each won three out of six matches which entitles them to a minor letter. Much credit and praise is due to the other players for their co-operation and spirit in all of their matches. Much credit is due, also, to Mr. Dickey for the fine showing of the team.

There are no seniors on the team, so much will be expected from the team next year.

Girls' Athletic Association

President - - - - - MARTHA CHAMBERLIN
Vice-President - - - - - MARTHA WAGNER
Secretary - - - - ELEANOR HOCHSTETLER

In 1931, because of the clamors of the girls to rival the boys in sports, the Girls' Athletic Association was organized by Miss Heestand, Miss Heckaman, Mr. Goodrich, and Mr. Schuler.

This year, we organized the association into more of a society than it had been previously, with monthly meetings the first Wednesday of every month. We had over fifty members, and for the first time got our organization pins. We also had several parties during the year.

The Girls' Interclass Tourney, sponsored by the G. A. A. was won by the sophomores from the juniors in an overtime game. The final game was played just before the boys' final game, in the Community Building.

Thre are six sports: basketball, baseball, volley-ball, track, tennis, and hiking, in four of which the girl must participate before she will receive her points. She may also receive points for refereeing, keeping time, and keeping score. When the girl has received 150 points, she receices her NHS monogram. After receiving her monogram, she participates in the sports for enjoyment only.

The association is sponsored by the Student Council and the physical education teacher, Miss Hoover.

During the six years, 23 monograms have been given and more girls will be eligible for it this year.

—Martha Chamberlin.

First row: Mary Teeter, June Dumph, Isabelle Moore, Marilyn Slagle, Lillian Sechrist, Fredonna Rice, Ruby Calbeck, Maurine Wiseman, Helen Furney.

Second row: Kathryn Stahly, Christine Frederick, Helen Collins, Mary Alice George, Donabelle Sheets, Bette Mellinger, Anna Ruth Mullett, Betty Callander, Eleanor Hochstetler, Mary Field, Marilyn Miller, Willodene Johnson.

Third row: Dora Linn, Kathryn Mishler, Evelyn Warren, Mary King, Elva Haney, Joy Huffer, Thelma Hahn, Katharine Truex, Donabelle Minard, Clarice Mellinger, Madlin Reed, Dorothy McCuen, Marilyn Pippenger, Isabelle Doering.

Coach

HERMAN SCHULER

This is "Dutch" Schuler's 9th year as coach of athletics at Nappanee High School. During this time he has established a record with one of the smallest schools in this county that many other coaches with schools five times larger than ours would be proud to own. Schuler has spent many hours coaching his boys, not only in trying to develop them into players of a winning team, but of men of whom he can be proud. "Dutch" is admired and respected by thousands of fans and other coaches for the fair and clean game his boys always play. In saying good-by to our school, the senior class and members of his squad wish coach Schuler to know that they appreciate the fine spirit of their coach and are proud to have had him coach our team. We hope he enjoys many more successful seasons as one of the finest coaches in Indiana.

Trainer

JULIAN WALTERS

This is Julian's first year as trainer of the squad. Julian has spent many hours of hard work at ball polishing, suit cleaning, etc. For this, the senior class, extend to him our sincere vote of thanks and we hope to see him out there again next year doing his best for the team.

GEORGE BOCK, Ass't Trainer

George served as assistant trainer and staticism, and has proved to us his worth to the team. He also got in on many of the hard hours of work. The Senior Class wish to give him our sincere thanks.

Cheer Leaders

CLARICE MELLINGER AND LOUISE MASON

Nappanee High School, the members of the basketball team, and the general public wish to express their appreciation to the cheer leaders for the fine spirit which they caused to prevail at the games. Let's all yell for the team and help the cheer leaders.

Noon Basketball

More boys joined noon basketball this year then ever before. There were eight teams and these provided some exciting games. Noon basketball provides entertainment for the boys who do not make the varsity.

Numerals are given the boys for playing noon basketball.
